

ATC students compete in SkillsUSA

The following Alexandria Technical College (ATC) students won awards at the 43rd annual SkillsUSA State Leadership and Skills Conference:

Ashley Tvrdik of Alexandria, honorable mention, architectural drafting; Leo Steffl of Alexandria, 2nd place, CNC milling event; Terry Hill of Miltona, 2nd place, machine trades blueprint reading; Spencer Coffman of Farwell, 1st place, high school division, masonry;

Zachary Longhenry of Alexandria, 1st place, high school division, motorcycle service technology; Roederick Feiler of Alexandria, 2nd place, high school division, masonry; Matt Hoffman of Holmes City, 1st place, high school division, precision machining technology, 2nd place, trade math; Aaron Bitzan of Millerville, honorable mention, snowmobile service technology.

ATC received 20 first place awards, 14 second place awards, 18 third place awards and seven honorable mentions. Seventeen students will advance to the national SkillsUSA competition to be held in Kansas City, Missouri in June.